PUBLIC NOTICE

No.

Date : 03.09.2013

Sub : Staff paper on "Improvement of Market Efficiency by information dissemination through display of Aggregate Demand and Supply Day Ahead curves by Power Exchanges on their website".

Section 66 of the Electricity Act, 2003 mandates that Appropriate Commission shall endeavor to promote development of market (including trading) in power. This has also been emphasized in the National Electricity Policy issued by Ministry of Power in February 2005.

2. As a step towards promotion of development of market, a Staff Paper on "Improvement of Market Efficiency by information dissemination through display of Aggregate Demand and Supply Day Ahead curves by Power Exchanges on their website" has been prepared and posted on the website www.cercind.gov.in.

3. It is clarified that the discussion in the Staff Paper do not necessarily reflect views of the Commission. However, based on the feedback received, the Commission will take a view on the various suggestions made in the Staff Paper.

4. The views and suggestions of the stakeholders and other interested persons are invited on the staff paper, so as to reach the office of the Commission by 30.09.2013.
