PRESS RELEASE

Central Electricity Regulatory Commission (CERC) commemorates its Fifteenth Anniversary

Central Electricity Regulatory Commission (CERC) commemorated its 15 years of its existence on 24th July, 2013. In a small get together, of former Chairpersons, Members, Secretaries, senior functionaries and present Members and Staff, organised in its office in Chanderlok Building, New Delhi, the Commission re-lived its past memories, recent achievements and resolved to continue to act with same fortitude and uprightness in carrying forward its mission of promoting competition, efficiency and economy in power sector. The event was attended by Shri S L Rao, first Chairperson; Dr Pramod Deo, former Chairperson; Shri D P Sinha, former Member; Shri H L Bajaj, former ex-officio Member; Shri R Krishnamoorthy, former Member; Shri Sanjeev S Ahluwalia and Shri Rajiv Bansal former Secretaries to the Commission.

2. Speaking on the occasion Shri V.S. Verma, the senior most member of the Commission stated that CERC has created a niche for itself in the power sector by virtue of its progressive actions towards furthering reforms and for bold decisions on several vexed issues. The Commission has endeavoured to live up to the expectations of the stakeholders and is committed to do so in future years. Shri Deena Dayalan, Member, CERC said in his remarks that the Commission has attained heights in terms of credibility and reliability as a professional body over the years. This has been possible because of active participation and co-operation of the former Chairpersons/Members, present Members and more importantly due to arduous efforts of its Staff. He exhorted the staff to continue to support the Commission in taking informed decisions and assured that the Commission would always remain committed to its ideals of carrying reforms forward in the power sector.
